Burr House
Artisans
Gallery Shop &
Tearoom

Built in 1820 by Roland Burr, the gallery is jointly operated by the Burr House Spinners & Weavers Guild and the Richmond Hill Potters' Guild. It features unique, one-of-kind handcrafted items by Guild members and local artisans.

The Guild Hall located next door, was originally built in 1857 as an Evangelical Church and is now the home and working studio space for both guilds.

Transportation: 11:00 am. If you are staying in Richmond Hill or surrounding areas, meet at Finch subway station. We will take the subway to downtown Toronto.

You will need $3.25 in cash for ride down, and another $3.25 cash for ride back.

The Jack Layton Ferry Terminal is a short walk away, located between Bay Street and Yonge Street on Queen's Quay.

If you wish to make your own way downtown, please let us know.

Return Ferry tickets are :
Adult $7.50, Senior $5, Junior (under 14) $3.65

The Toronto Islands are in Lake Ontario, a 13-minute ferry ride from downtown Toronto. Boats to the Island leave from the Jack Layton Ferry Terminal at the foot of Bay St. and Queen's Quay. The Island is a group of 15 islands inter-connected by pathways and bridges. You can walk from one end of the Island to the other.

The island is approximately 5 km long, from Ward's Island to Hanlan's Point. The view of the city is gorgeous and the island itself is just as beautiful - it's a photographer's paradise, indeed.

WET WEATHER ALTERNATIVE: Explore downtown Toronto using the underground PATH system and view the CSPWC International Open Water exhibition .
